

I wanted to express my concern over the Consumer Bankers Association's attempt to exempt themselves from the Indiana Telephone Privacy Act. Since the inception of the act, the number of unwanted phone calls to my residence has greatly decreased. I fear that if this group is allowed an exception, my family will once again have their privacy interrupted by unwanted solicitous phone calls. Please, do not grant this exception and help protect my right to privacy in my home.